

THEME STATIONS

Food Stations are a great option for a mingling reception, with lots of food varieties and a casual elegance for you and your guests. There are many factors which make Stations Receptions different than Buffets...with a Station Reception, guest dining tables do not have formal place settings; rather, small plates are available at each station. There is not a specific time to release guests to the stations, as guests can begin when they choose, after stations open. Stations typically stay open for about 1.5 hours, giving guests time to dine at their own pace, while visiting with other guests through out the room.

All Stations reception include a Dipping Station (choices listed below), then you customize with your choice of 3 or more stations to add. We will work with you to create the perfect station selections for your special event!
